

November 09, 2025: On There is Nothing Left to Help You Feel Better Donald

I can honestly sense that these forces are continuing to seek more and more 'joy' from their sadistic desire to cause us discomfort and harm.

Donald, Elon, Freemason Network of Evil Old Losers:

You don't ever get the joy that you are seeking.

I am sorry. There just is not any actual joy in causing harm to people.

You are continuing to circle the drain of history and nothing will help you feel better about your time on earth.

It's just the truth.

Joy is an emotion that comes from building something good with, and for, good people in the world. Joy is not a temporary emotion that satisfies an 'itch' to hold power over someone else.

Joy is the emotion that you are seeking and you will never find it on your path.

I wish I had something to help you feel better - because truly, I am tired of you all seeking this sense of 'power' over our home.

But, there is nothing here for you.

Your plan has worked, but it does not amount to the happiness that you thought that it would bring you.

You have successfully destroyed the last island of freedom in the world.

There is not any 'American' spirit, 'American' law, or 'American' people left.

Your network did successfully destroy it.

Now, I guess it's time to rebuild it?

It begs the question of why ever destroy it in the first place if rebuilding it is the goal of the destruction.

But I digress. You won, Donald. You were placed into the head of the United States Military and proceeded to destroy everyone and everything with your power.

The better path was to help everyone succeed and help bring joy to the world,

But, that goal is beyond your capability to achieve.

You will never find the emotion that you seek.

Please leave our home now. There is no place for you here.

You wanted to be Satan. Now, God will only return to the world when you have left it.
